

EMPLOYMENT OF RETIRED OFFICERS OR WARRANT OFFICERS BY CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill (S. 927) to amend section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, which had been reported from the Committee on Armed Services with amendments on page 2, line 3, after the word "officer", to insert "or warrant officer"; in line 6, after the word "elect", to insert a colon and the following proviso: "Provided, That upon appointment under the authorities of this subsection, or any other authority of law, officers or warrant officers retired for injuries or incapacities incurred in line of duty may, in addition to the elections set forth herein, elect to receive, in addition to their retired pay, additional compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which the compensation of their position with the Agency exceeds their retired pay"; in line 16, after the word "officers", to insert "or warrant officers"; and in line 17, after the word "law", to strike out the colon and the following proviso: "Provided, That, upon such appointment, officers retired for injuries or incapacity incurred in line of duty may, in addition to the elections set forth above, elect to receive, in addition to his retired pay, annual compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which the compensation of his position with the Agency exceeds his retired pay", so as to make the bill read:

Be it enacted, etc., That section 6 of the Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 (act of June 20, 1949, ch. 227 sec. 6, 63 Stat. 211) is hereby amended by the addition of a subsection "(f)" as follows:

"(f) (1) Notwithstanding section 2 of the Act of July 31, 1894 (28 Stat. 205), as amended (5 U.S.C.A. 62), or any other law prohibiting the employment of any retired commissioned or warrant officer of the armed services, the Agency is hereby authorized to employ and to pay the compensation of not more than 15 retired officers or warrant officers of the armed services while performing service for the Agency, but while so serving such retired officer or warrant officer will be entitled to receive only the compensation of his position with the Agency, or his retired pay, whichever he may elect: Provided, That upon appointment under the authorities of this subsection, or any other authority of law, officers or warrant officers retired for injuries or incapacities incurred in line of duty may, in addition to the elections set forth herein, elect to receive, in addition to their retired pay, additional compensation at a rate equal to the amount by which the compensation of their position with the Agency exceeds their retired pay. "(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or affect the appointment of and payment of compensation to retired officers or warrant officers not presently or hereafter prohibited by law.

The amendments were agreed to.

The bill was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, read the third time, and passed.
